Why Miami Beach?

It's home to more than the ocean. Miami boasts one of the most diverse collections of resorts and meeting spaces in the nation. With world class shopping, top-notch dining, a bevy of outdoor recreation options, and a championship golf course around every corner, it's no wonder sunny Miami is one of the most-visited cities in the country.

Why 360 Destination Group?

Florida is no stranger to DMCs that crank out event after event like factory work – think mechanical robots, entering computations fed to it by a client, then spitting out any old itinerary or agenda. But there's nothing mass produced about 360 Destination Group. To us, your business is unique, so we're going to treat you as such with boutique, personalized service and innovative, custom experiences. In fact, we promise to deliver only one program, in one market, at one time. Because we're the antithesis of the assembly line.
